REBELS ROUT FEDERAL FORCES AFTER FIVE HOURS OF FIGHTING

THOUSAND AD MEN LOOK FORWARD TO STAY AT WACO ON JOURNEY OVER STATE WITH ENTHUSIASM

English Delegate, Traveling 5,000 Miles To Attend Convention, Will Be One of Speakers Here

TORONTO HAS BEST CHANCE FOR NEXT YEAR MEET

(By G. Byron Cady, Staff Correspondent.)

Dallas, May 22.—Looking forward to the 1000-mile trip over Texas, with Waco the first stop, the ad men in convention here have practically concluded their work and are waiting for Friday morning to start the trip. Over 900 had engaged tickets tonight and it is thought that almost one thousand will make the jaunt. The program of the entertainment to be tendered in Waco has aroused much interest, and being the first stop, much enthusiasm is being shown. The first of the four special trains leaves Dallas Friday morning at 9 o'clock, with the others following at ten-minute intervals.

English Delegate to Speak.

Wacoans will have the privilege of hearing an address by an English delegate, Charles Frederick Higham of London, who has traveled 5000 miles to attend the convention. A response to the address of welcome by Mayor J. H. Mackey of Waco will be made by Ralph E. Sutherland of Omaha, Neb. W. V. Crawford will preside at the Cotton Palace meeting. The Waco delegates attending the convention include W. V. Crawford, E. R. Wills, I. Friedlander, B. McCollum, Louis McCullough and Sid Herz, with Frank W. Vasey, who arrived tonight. W. J. Mitchell and L. Davis returned home tonight. Waco men have aroused much interest, and Gov. Colquhoun's statement during his speech that Waco was one of the liveliest cities in the state was applauded.

No untoward incident has occurred except that S. R. Willis has lost a gift. President Coleman has also referred to Waco as special train city.

This was Fort Worth day for the ad men attending the national convention in Dallas, and with practically all delegates in attendance, they were treated to a north and west Texas welcome. Lake Como was the Mecca at Fort Worth after addresses of welcome by Mayor W. D. Davis and Hon. Louis J. Worthingham. Responses were made by J. A. MacDonald, managing editor of the Toronto (Canada) Globe, and Joe Mitchell Chapple of Boston. Mr. MacDonald, who was one of the leading spirits in behalf of reciprocity, which was defeated in Canada, detailed the fight to some extent, and took occasion to boost Toronto's claims for the 1913 meeting.

Following the welcome at the Majestic opera house, conveyances were taken to Lake Como, where a unique lunch was served in Mexican style. The hats worn then were and are a common sight on the streets here tonight. A wild west exhibition was then given for the visitors, and at 9:30 o'clock the women visitors were taken to the Country club for an informal dinner and the men to the Coliseum for a banquet. The speakers included Clarence Ousley of Fort Worth and James Schermerhorn of Detroit.

Coleman Probably Re-elected.

Thursday ends the convention in Dallas, but the real program has already been concluded. Friday's business includes the election of officers, and the forecast tonight is that Geo. W. Coleman of Boston will be re-elected. The next meeting place is also to be decided Friday, with Toronto, Baltimore and San Francisco as contestants. Until tonight San Francisco had been considered very strong, according to sentiment, but the scheduled California banquet for tonight was canceled. It is thought that Toronto's chances are the best. A cattle barbecue will end the festivities here.

Program For Friday.

Leave Dallas in the morning, arrive Waco 1:30 p. m. Automobiles provided at depot. Out of door luncheon. Automobile ride over city. Banquet in the evening, machinery hall, Cotton Palace Park. Addresses of welcome, Mayor J. H. Mackey, W. V. Crawford, president, Waco Ad Club and Dr. S. P. Brooks, president Baylor University. Responses by Ralph E. Sutherland, of Sunderland Brothers, Omaha, Neb., and by an English delegate. Leave Waco 11 p. m. via Katy, for San Antonio.

BAYNE APPEALS FOR AUTO MEN TO HELP

LOCAL CLUB PRESIDENT CALLS UPON MEMBERS TO LEND THEIR AID AND CARLS.

The following statement to the members of the Waco Automobile club was issued by the president, H. M. Bayne, today:

Every citizen owning an auto should realize that the reputation of Waco as a city that does things is at stake, and lend his car to assist in the entertainment of the 1200 representatives of the Associated Ad Clubs of America, to be the guests of Waco Friday afternoon. No more influential or progressive body of men ever assembled in the south. These delegates are from among the most prominent men of every state of the Union and several foreign countries. This is the opportunity of all opportunities to place Waco in the proper light before the whole world, that will pay big dividends for all future years.

Less than one-third of the autos needed have been volunteered. This is indeed hardly believable when Waco has more automobiles than any other city in the state, according to population. Surely the citizens of Waco owning autos are not going to allow these distinguished visitors to roam our streets unattended or attempt to walk to the old Country Club, where a luncheon has been prepared.

Let every auto owner be at the Katy station Friday afternoon at 1:30 and show his loyalty to Waco. H. M. BAYNE, President Waco Automobile Club.

ATTENTION, AUTO OWNERS.

The committee in charge to secure autos urgently requests that you communicate at once with Horace Flynn, old phone 893 or new phone 793. Our reputation for hospitality is at stake and we must have the cars.

JOE W. SANGER, General Chairman.

HUERTA LEAVES DEAD AND WOUNDED

VIGOROUS RENEWAL OF EN- GAGEMENT IS EXPECTED AT DAYBREAK BY OROZCO.

Huerta's Command in Retreat—Im- possible to Estimate Casual- ties of the Battle.

By The Associated Press.

Reilano, Mex., May 22.—Rebels at Asunola, Gen. Orozco's headquarters, fought the government troops under Gen. Huerta, who attacked the insurgents here today. After five hours of fighting Gen. Huerta's command was in retreat, leaving dead and wounded on the field. Gen. Orozco expects a vigorous renewal of battle at daybreak.

The artillery and infantry fire ceased shortly after nightfall, after perhaps the most spectacular battle fought on Mexican soil since the French invasion of the last century. Losses Can't Be Estimated.

It is impossible to estimate the casualties tonight, but it is known the rebels lost at least fifteen cavalrymen in a charge against the right wing of the rebel line, near a point where Gen. Orozco, who directed the rebel maneuvers, happened to be at the time. It is not believed the rebel loss in dead will fall short of fifty, though this number may be increased when the field has been searched.

Orozco in Personal Charge.

Gen. Orozco came down from Jimenez to take personal charge just before the rebels attacked at four o'clock. Gen. Salazar was in command of the first rebel line. The federal commands of Generals Truicy, Aubert, Rebago and Generals Villa and Urbana, are engaged. The federal force is estimated at 3,000, and the rebels at 4000. The advantage being in favor of the insurgents.

Rebels Return Fire.

While the federal artillery poured shell after shell into the rebels' positions, rebel cavalry moved to one side in a flank movement at the same time pouring a heavy fire into the federal columns.

WOMEN HELP TO CUT REBELS TO PIECES

By The Associated Press.

Los Angeles, May 22.—A letter received today by Dr. Geo. A. Scriven of this city from an American newspaper man in Mazatlan describes the entire population of the west coast of Mexico as "in a state of terror and in the midst of bloody guerrilla warfare."

At Esquinalpa, the writer says, the women helped the federal forces under Gen. Ogdena to cut to pieces the rebels under Guerrero, who had attacked the town.

TELL OF ATROCITIES.

By The Associated Press.

Mexico City, May 22.—Federal soldiers who participated in the fight at Tres Marias, near Cuernavaca, two days ago, brought to the capital today news of atrocities committed by Zapatistas on several of their number who were taken prisoner. They were bound and thrown into burning buildings. A woman camp follower, with a child in her arms, was said to have suffered a similar fate.

SAYS INDEPENDENT STEEL COMPANY GOT CONTRACTS

By The Associated Press.

New York, May 22.—Interlocking directors between the United States Steel Corporation and numerous railroads exerted no influence to prevent the McClintock-Marshall Construction company, an independent bridge concern, from getting contracts to build railroad bridges, according to testimony given today by C. D. Marshall, president of the construction company, in the hearing of the suit to dissolve the United States Steel Corporation under the Sherman anti-trust law.

TAFT CLAIMING HE WILL WIN NOMINATION

HAS 370 DELEGATES, HE AS- SERTS, WHILE MCKINLEY IS MORE OPTIMISTIC STILL.

President Will Wage Fight in New Jersey to "Make Assurance Doubly Sure."

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 22.—Claiming 570 delegates to the Chicago convention or 30 more than enough to secure him the nomination, President Taft in a statement today declared he was going into New Jersey to "make assurance doubly sure." He will leave Washington at seven o'clock tomorrow morning and make his set speech at Camden in the evening.

The president's statement was issued after a day of activity at the white house. Political conferences with his managers and appointments with members of the cabinet were followed at four o'clock by a meeting of the full cabinet. It was stated later that this meeting was devoted to "routine business" but members of the cabinet admitted that the political situation had been reviewed in considerable details.

"Our opponents quote from a statement of mine made in Cleveland, that the fight in my home state, much to my gratification, would be the decisive one," said the president in his statement "and would settle the question of my nomination. This is true. I shall have at least 17 votes from Ohio including the delegates at large for we have every assurance that we shall control the state convention. This will constitute a clear majority in the national convention. Delegates elected for me from other states, of which I have been advised since my Cleveland statement, gave me at the most conservative estimate 570 out of the 1978 votes in the national convention 30 more than the number necessary to nominate."

McKinley Sees 600.

Early in the day Director McKinley of the Taft headquarters claimed "at least 600 delegates" for the president. The president's estimate, while smaller is declared at the white house to represent "rock-bottom" figures which are expected to be materially increased. The claim to the six delegates at large in Ohio was made by the president, reassuring messages from his Ohio managers.

No definite claim was made by the Taft forces today to the 24 delegates to be selected in New Jersey next Tuesday. At Roosevelt national headquarters, Senator Dixon expressed the belief that Col. Roosevelt would carry all districts in the state and get the full delegation. In a statement early in the day Senator Dixon declared Colonel Roosevelt will be nominated at Chicago on the first ballot.

ARE AWARDED DAMAGES.

In the Nineteenth district court Wednesday, the personal damage suit cases of Marion Humphreys and P. C. Jackson versus the M. K. & T. railway, were consolidated, and by agreement the plaintiffs were awarded damages to the amount of $100 in each case. It was alleged in the petition that the wives of the plaintiffs were forcibly ejected from a passenger train near Fort Worth. The women were bound for Waco and it is said they boarded the wrong train with the foregoing result.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, May 22.—Government prediction:
West Texas—Fair Thursday and Friday.
East Texas—Fair Thursday and probably Friday.
Okla.—Fair and continued warm Thursday and probably Friday.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 22.—Five riflemen concealed behind a curtain sent steel nosed bullets into the heart of a blindfolded man as he sat in a chair at the state prison today. Julius Surmay, a murderer, was the target.

TEDDY'S LEAD IN OHIO GROWS

HAS PLURALITY OF 25,000 AND 32 OF 42 DISTRICT DELEGATES, MAY GET SIX MORE.

Returns Indicate Progressives Will Control State Convention, They Claim.

By The Associated Press.

Columbus, May 22.—According to returns in hand tonight from approximately 4500 of the 5192 precincts in the state, Col. Theodore Roosevelt's delegates to the national republican convention carried yesterday's Ohio primaries by a plurality of about 25,000 votes. It now seems scarcely possible that final results from the primary poll will change the number of district delegates for either side by more than one or two. The best figures obtainable tonight show that Roosevelt has 32 of the 42 district delegates selected yesterday, and that President Taft has ten.

Marmion Sure of All.

Late returns from the democratic presidential preferential primary give Woodrow Wilson a fighting chance for one or two more delegates, but his exact standing will not be known until belated rural returns are in. Gov. Harmon practically is assured a complete delegation of forty-eight delegates to the Baltimore convention. His lead now gives him control of the state democratic convention, which will select six delegates at large. Also the convention will provide for the unit rule, which will force the Wilson delegates selected by districts yesterday to vote for the Ohio executive.

Convention to Decide.

The delegates at large chosen by the republican party will not be known or settled until June 3, when the state republican convention meets here. Taft leaders claim they will control the state convention and designate the delegates at large, but the Roosevelt managers declared late returns show the number of Taft delegates to the state convention to be dwindling instead of increasing, as was announced early today. There is no question but that the Roosevelt-Taft fight will be carried onto the floor of the state convention. In only twenty-three of the eighty-eight counties in the state were delegates to the state convention chosen. In the remaining counties the delegates will be named by county conventions.

Official Count Necessary.

Even in the matter of district delegates an official count will be necessary to determine exact results. An instance of this sort arose today in the Thirtieth congressional district where late returns indicate that the district will be divided almost evenly between Taft and Roosevelt delegates and Harmon and Wilson. Early figures gave the two delegates in this district on the republican ticket to Mr. Taft. Col. Roosevelt may now get one of the delegates and thus increase his total of district delegates to 33. This would leave Mr. Taft nine delegates.

White House for T. R.

An analysis tonight of the Roosevelt vote shows the Roosevelt strength was not confined to any particular section of the state or to any particular class of citizen. He carried mining and industrial sections and some of the oldest and most conservative urban communities in the state. Added to these was much strength among the farmers. In Adams county, where more than 4500 voters were disfranchised not long ago for vote selling, Roosevelt had a plurality. A town with a prophetic name, White House, in Lucas county, gave Roosevelt 21 votes and Taft 5. Roosevelt managers seized upon this incident as a harbinger of good fortune.

Wilson Wins and Loses.

The trend of the late democratic returns, which indicate that Wilson has carried the First and Second districts in the Cincinnati end of the state. Wilson, possibly because it was Gov. Harmon's home territory, had no candidates for delegates in these districts, and hence his unexpected strength will give him nothing more than the expressed approval of the voters in the districts. Gov. Harmon gets the delegates from these districts, simply because there were no Wilson delegates to vote for.

TEXAN ASSAILS ROOSEVELT, SAYING HE WILL SWEEP THE COUNTRY IN FALL ELECTION

Dies Foresees Crumbling of Republic Under Rule of Mob and Going Way of Rome, Greece, Italy, France and Mexico With Teddy

WILSON, UNDERWOOD AND CLARK BITTERLY SCORED

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 22.—In one of the most remarkable speeches of the present session of congress, Representative Dies of Texas, democrat, today assailed former President Roosevelt in bitter terms and referred in almost as bitter fashion to the leaders of his own party, including Speaker Clark and Gov. Wilson, to whom he alluded as "Parson" Wilson. Mr. Dies foresaw the crumbling of the republic, the eventual rule of the mob, and assigned as the causes the growth of demagoguery and the influx of ignorant immigration.

Says T. R. Will Win.

The story of Rome, Greece, Italy, France, and coming to the present day in Mexico, the Texan expressed his fervent hope that "history would not repeat itself under 'Teddy.' He prophesied that Col. Roosevelt, because of his victory in Ohio, would "sweep the country" in the coming presidential campaign.

"You're a pessimist," cried a voice on the republican side.

"No, I am not a pessimist," shouted Mr. Dies. "I look for the worst."

Attacks House Leaders.

He attacked Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Underwood for their alleged failure to sustain the old democratic principles. In like vein, and for the same reason, he assailed Minority Leader Mann and Representative Dairzell of Pennsylvania for what he charged was desertion from their political faith.

Berger's Biggest Man.

"Berger is the biggest man in this bunch," he said, referring to the lone socialist member, who hails from Wisconsin. "He is heading toward socialism, while you are backing away and into it."

Minneapolis, May 22.—Dr. N. L. Luebeck, pastor of the Hyde Park church, Kansas City, Mo., is the fourth bishop of the eight to be elected at the present session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here.

W. J. Bryan, in a speech before the conference reiterated his recent statement that he is candidate for no office and did not expect to be.

"I hope that no unfriendly newspaper," he said, "will say that I am a candidate for bishop."

RESENT INTIMATION
THEY ARE HETERODOX

By The Associated Press.

Louisville, May 22.—What was taken to be an inference by Rev. Dr. Alexander Henry of Philadelphia that one or more members of the board of publication and Sunday school work were not orthodox, provoked quick response today from members of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Names of the heterodox ones were called for. Dr. Henry straightened matters out by explaining that in anything he had said he had not intended to convey any inference, and expressed his unquestioned belief in the integrity of the orthodoxy of every board member.

The assembly expressed its disapproval of the act of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson in accepting the vice presidency of the Brewers' congress at Chicago, by rescinding its action in naming him as a delegate to the pan-Presbyterian council.

Brussels, May 22.—The international commission on aeronautical law, presided over by Prince Bonaparte, has arranged a project for the regulation of international aerial travel. This will be submitted in June to an international conference at Vienna.

By The Associated Press.

Out of the jungle comes the lion tamer, his hand reeking with the blood of wild beasts. Up goes the cry, "We want Teddy! We want Teddy!" Not even La Follette, not even Cummins, is advanced enough. They do not know the meaning of progressivism.

Mr. Dies attributed to "ignorance at home and cowardice here" his conviction that the republic was going ahead at the present time "more and more less slowly because of its acquired momentum."

Attacks House Leaders.

He attacked Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Underwood for their alleged failure to sustain the old democratic principles. In like vein, and for the same reason, he assailed Minority Leader Mann and Representative Dairzell of Pennsylvania for what he charged was desertion from their political faith.

NEW HAMPSHIRE STANDPATTER
ATTACKS EIGHT-HOUR DAY
LAW AS ANARCHY.

Says the Longer the Senate Is in Session the More Harm It Will Do the Country.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 22.—An attack "on present legislative tendencies" was delivered in the senate today by Senator Gallinger, during debate on the bill passed by the house extending the eight-hour day to labor on government contracts. Senator Gallinger cited this measure as a specimen of "pernicious legislation."

Stop Before Too Late.

"I hope we shall vote very promptly on every measure coming before the senate," he continued, "because the longer we stay here, the more harm we shall do the country. We are expected to tear up the established principles of the country and do away with the injunction. A member of the house has advanced the idea that six hours is long enough for any man to work, and I suppose that under the snap of the whip we will be forced to submit even to that."

Senators Borah of Idaho and Martine of New Jersey defended the measure, the latter citing the opinion on the eight-hour law in New Jersey.

Result of Tariff.

"New Jersey is the headquarters of an anarchy in the United States," commented Senator Gallinger. "Yes," admitted Mr. Martine, "as a result of the infamous tariff legislation which has made a handful of millionaires in Passaic and Paterson and produced squalor and woe among their employees."

A move to mend the bill failed.

The measure was not disposed of.

Thirteenth Juror

In Darrow Trial

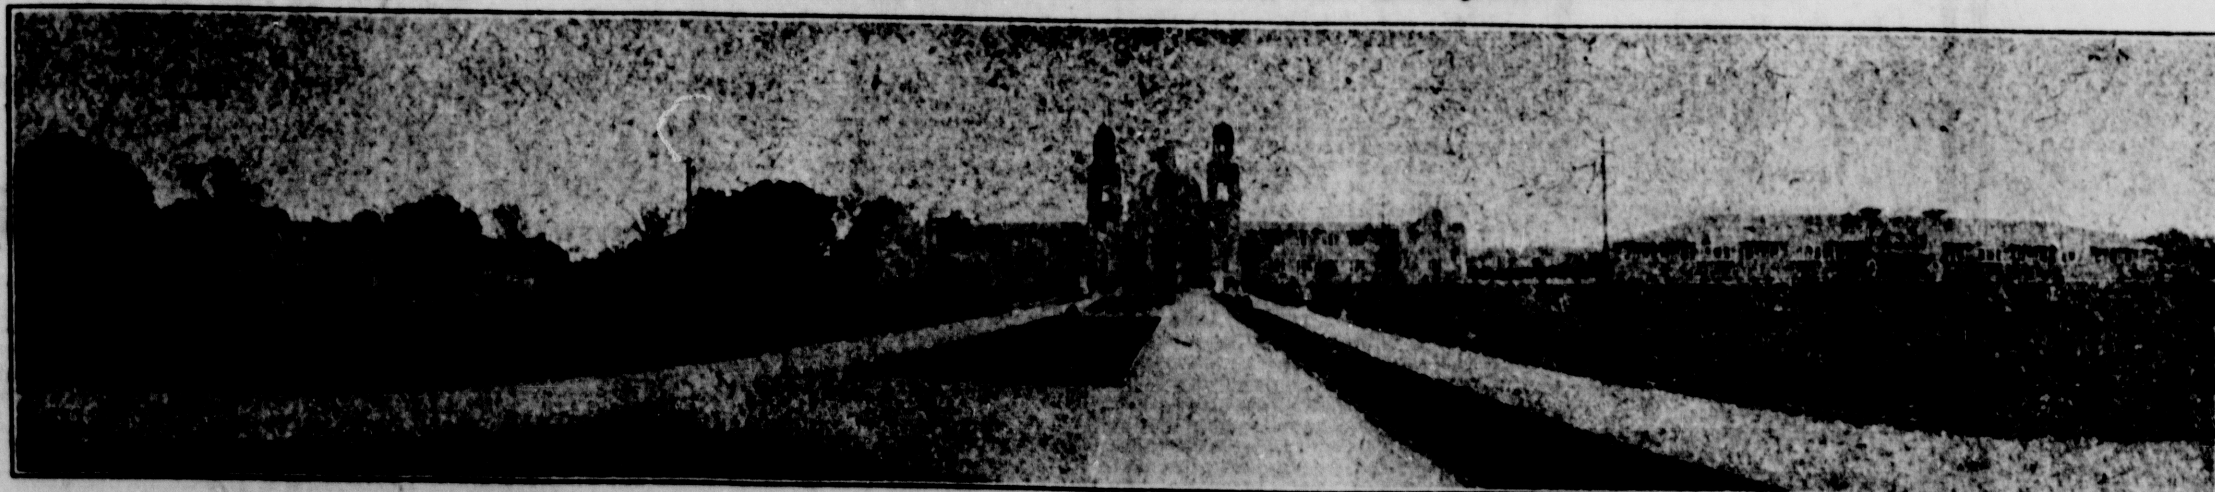

Is Hard to Find

By The Associated Press.

Los Angeles, May 22.—Selecting a thirteenth, or alternate juror in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, the Chicago lawyer, for alleged jury bribing, proved today the most difficult task yet undertaken in the trial. The regular jury of 12 men was completed before the noon recess.

When court adjourned late today ten men had been examined in a fruitless attempt to obtain the thirteenth member who will not act on reaching a verdict only if required by the illness of a regular juror. It was after the selection of the jury that both sides agreed to choose an extra juror as provided by a law on the statute books of the state, though seldom used. The twelfth juror was obtained after a brief examination but when efforts were made to select the extra juror strong prejudice in the minds of a surprisingly large number of talesmen was encountered.

HELD FOR KILLING AT CORPUS CHRISTI

By The Associated Press.

Corpus Christi, Tex., May 22.—At the examining trial at San Diego of Frank Robinson, Charley Gravis and L. S. A. Roberts, charged with the triple killing last Saturday in an election fight, the defendants were this morning released on $10,000 bond each. No witnesses were offered for the defense.

FLOOD REFUGEES BEING CARED FOR

MISSISSIPPI AND TRIBUTARIES FALLING EVERYWHERE, BUT THOUSANDS HOMELESS.

Camps in Sanitary Shape and None
Suffering from Hunger—Sickness Breaks Out.

By The Associated Press.
New Orleans, May 22.—With the Mississippi river and tributaries steadily falling and no further disastrous crevasses in the levee anticipated in the devastating flood that swept millions of acres of Louisiana lowlands and stretches of fertile fields in Mississippi and southeastern Arkansas, interest now centers in the task of caring for the tens of thousands of people who have been made homeless. More than $1,000,000 in cash and a still larger amount in clothing and supplies have been devoted to the refugees and there is almost a half million dollars in sight for their urgent needs.

Camps in Fair Condition.
From some sections of the flooded districts have come stories of distressing conditions but the United States army relief corps and local relief committees have been prompt in every instance in dispatching food and medical supplies and today the conditions of the various refugee camps are declared to be in fair to good condition. Only a few deaths have occurred among the refugees and every effort is being made to keep the camps in sanitary shape.

Out of approximately 170,000 persons, who have been driven from their homes by the floods, the United States army relief corps is dispensing rations daily to nearly 140,000 and such of others as need assistance are being cared for by local relief committees. The towns and cities in the hills have without exception almost thrown wide open their doors to the homeless folks and their pastures are given freely for the cattle taken from the lowlands.

Refugees Distributed.
Captain James A. Logan, U. S. A., in charge of the army relief corps, in this state south of the Red River has approximately 30,000 refugees under his care. They are distributed at various cities and towns adjoining the overflowed territory in numbers ranging from fifty to three thousand. Fifteen thousand are distributed at points in the bayou des Glaises section and along the highlands between Opelousas and Morgan City; five thousand are quartered in towns along Bayou Grosse Tete and in the vicinity of Plaquemine; 2500 are being cared for between New Roads and Port Allen; 3000 at Baton Rouge and 2700 at Port Hudson.

Each of the camps is in charge of an army officer and at the larger camps red cross nurses and physicians are on duty.

In the camps of northern Louisiana and in the Vicksburg territory more than 100,000 persons are being cared for and reports received tonight declare that conditions in the camps are good.

Sickness Appears.
At Crowley sickness has developed among a number of the refugees and at Moreauville, in the Bayou des Glaises section, there has been some criticism because government rations are not supplied in sufficient quantities to the homeless.

Captain Logan yesterday dispatched a lieutenant to Moreauville and another shipment of supplies was sent forward.

Owing to the large number of flood victims that are being cared for, in some instances, many are huddled together in large rooms, and warehouses; others are living in tents and necessary suffering prevails, many declaring they have been denied food and clothing.

There is approximately $600,000 of the army relief appropriation left and local relief committees have perhaps $40,000 in cash and supplies on hand. This combined sum will suffice probably for another two weeks and it will be necessary to raise several hundred thousand dollars more to feed and properly care for the unfortunate.

ORIENT CAN MOVE TO SAN ANGELO

GIVEN RIGHT BY THE SUPREME COURT TO TRANSFER HEAD-QUARTERS AND SHOPS.

By The Associated Press.

Austin, Tex., May 22.—After five years of court fights, the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway Company now has a clear way to remove its headquarters, roundhouse and shops from Sweetwater to San Angelo. The supreme court, after having the matter under advisement for several weeks, today made permanent the writ of prohibition which it granted against District Judge James Shepherd of Sweetwater a while back, prohibiting him from interfering with the railway company by injunction, or otherwise in the efforts to remove its shops. Apparently the rail road, with all legal obstacles out of the way, will now proceed to make its contemplated removal.

One case is sharable in the history of Texas jurisprudence in many ways. For one thing, it is the first writ of prohibition ever granted by the supreme court of the state. A half dozen injunctions, three or four appeals, a mandamus or two and the effort of the railway to make the removals through amendments to its charter constitute some of the features of the case.

ESTABLISHMENT DESTROYED.
LOSS IS $13,500.

Special to The Morning News.

McGregor, Tex., May 22.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed two buildings and seven automobiles, an aggregate loss of $13,500, hardly a third covered by insurance, at 2 o'clock this morning. The McGregor Machine and Auto Company building and the confectionery store of Earl Bryant were burned and for a while the town was threatened. Seven automobiles belonging to people in town, housed in the garage of the machine and auto company, were destroyed.

"STRANGER FROM TEXAS" COMITS SUICIDE

By The Associated Press.

Fayetteville, Ark., May 22.—An unidentified man, about 65 years old, shot himself through the head on the State University campus this morning.

He left a note signed "A Stranger From Texas," in which he said he was too old to work, too honest to steal, and too proud to beg. His clothing was marked "J. E. S." and he evidently was from Belton, Texas.

By The Associated Press.
El Paso, Tex., May 22.—Ramon Munoz was arrested today by Texas rangers on a warrant charging him with the kidnaping of Messrs. Blatt and Converse, two American boys, from Texas soil over a year ago. The boys were in Madero's rebel army and were arrested by the Mexican federal authorities while returning to El Paso. The boys produced evidence to show they were arrested on Texas soil and on demand of the United States, were ordered released from the Juarez jail by President Diaz of Mexico.

FORMAL OPENING OF SCHOOL ON LAST DAY OF MAY

It is now decided that the formal opening of the handsome new high school will be held on the last day of May, the day when the new graduates are to be welcomed and the promotion cards given. There will be a formal program, the flag raising and other exercises. Every parent in the city is to be the guest and will be shown over this creditable addition to Waco as an education center.

THE ELEANOR CAMERON TO BE CHRISTENED

Among the many incidents of the opening of the Causeway, there will be the formal christening of the little Eleanor Cameron. The little sponsor leaves with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron, on Friday, to take her part in the ceremony. The Eleanor Cameron and the Mrs. Governor Colquitt are the two state boats which go out to meet the incoming steamers of the Galveston port under the direction of the quarantine physician, who is now Dr. McGlasson, formerly of this city.

INVITATIONS FOR BAYLOR REUNION ON FRIDAY

There have been issued cards of invitation from Miss Lois Noble, pupil of H. J. Spanell in voice, and Miss Sammie Cobb, pupil of Anton Navratil in violin, for a joint recital after 5 o'clock in Carroll chapel. These invitations not only carry pleasurable information, but they present a departure. In this a separate card bears the program. This is convenient in that the readers can take to the recital and not be encumbered with the double folder as heretofore. Misses Noble and Cobb are graduating from their respective departments, and the program which they give shows that they are well entitled to the diplomas which they will receive.

CARDS ARE ISSUED FOR RICHIE-SELEY WEDDING

Considering the wide connection by family and friends of the bride through the north and the East as well as the popularity of the groom as a State University student, also the personal popularity and social standing in this city, has doubtless carried the following into hundreds of homes:
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seley request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Willie

Mr. Harvey Mac Ritchey on the evening of Wednesday the fifth of June nineteen hundred and twelve at eight o'clock.
Saint Paul's Episcopal church, Waco, Texas.
The at-home card reads:
At home
Two hundred and twenty-four North Eighth street
Waco, Texas.

MANY WOMEN CONCERNED IN BAYLOR CLOSING

With children now at the university, with town pride in the institution, with guests who have come from afar for the closing exercises, or, nearer still, having been pupils at Baylor—all this, to say nothing of the personal entertainment in the various exercises, will enlist the interest of many women during Baylor commencement days. Invitations have been issued by the faculty and the graduating class of the exercises which continue from June the first to the fifth. This will be Baylor's sixty-seventh commencement. The seal from its charter surmounts the invitation. The schedule of events finds each day full and all interesting. The closing feature will be the alumni banquet at the Huxco club. Art, music, literature, religion, all the phases of university life, find a place in the program. The banquet is more than significant in that it marks a jubilee over the completion of the Baylor endowment which has concerned all Texas.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS OUTING: MARKS CLOSE OF YEAR

There were a full hundred out on the Fish Pond to enjoy the day's outing of the Woman's club. This has been the order of club closing for several years and it really is an appropriate sentiment—that of leaving the year indoors for the call of the wild with the laying aside of books. Each member of the club is privileged an invitation, together with several invited by the club as a whole. Thus it was that the Woman's club picnic found its attendance. There was the leisure made drive out by two and three, the informal greetings, and the dinner. There is always a well-filled larger, and delicious dainties, when the Woman's club entertains. After the table was cleared the retiring president, Mrs. J. W. Hale, presented a bunch of carnations with the love of each club member. This was done in quite an acceptable manner by Mrs. J. G. Kendall, Mrs. O. K. Arbuckle, the incoming president, then delivered the annual suggestions from the shade of the late Bill Nye, who indulged his accustomed facetiousness to the merriment of the listeners. There was laughter and applause, and thus the Woman's club add another year of pleasant association to its attendance. Among those who thus enjoyed the day were:
Messdames Lee Noblett, H. C. Lindsey, Lee Davis, W. O. Wilkes, Ed Thompson, H. B. Mistro, R. L. Cartwright, J. W. Downs, W. H. Phelan, Richard Munroe, W. H. Roberts, E. A. Wells, Curran, Charles Boynton, Ermine Carrington, J. G. Kendall, B. B. McReynolds, Woodson White, J. N. Gallagher, O. E. Arbuckle, Center Stiles, J. R. Miam, James Mackey, William Brewster, Lee Cowan, Llewellyn Aubrey, Forest Goodman, Vinton Harrison, C. Black, William Meade, Edward Rotan, William McCall, Frank Foreman, J. L. Keeler, S. P. Brooks, J. W. Hale, W. E. Darden, D. C. Rolinger, Paul Montgomery of Oklahoma, R. G. Patton; Misses Minnie Taylor, Bernice Young, Ada Risher, Minnie Killough.

BRILLIANT CLUB CLOSING WITH MRS. F. M. COMPTON

For the last session of the Press club, Mrs. F. M. Compton opened her home on North Fifth street to the club and their invited guests. This proved one of the elaborate club closings, with more of a variety in conduct than the other clubs have had this season. The four rooms of the lower floor were all utilized for the afternoon. Club members and Mrs. Compton's friends were generous in their thought to send flowers, roses especially. These were in plenty about the rooms, and used as the color dash to the green mat upon which the punch bowl sat. The club as a whole received guests. There was first amusements program informally given. Those contributing were Miss Ruth Lennox, Mrs. Temple Morrow, Miss Charlotte Ligon, the McClain sisters, Miss Nell Jurney and Miss Bettie May Hill. The purple and the gold was quite in evidence as the club colors, also the pennant used as a bit of club patriotism. Each member had been privileged two guests, which meant that the company to applaud the musicians neared the half hundred mark. The contest of the afternoon centered in placing old proverbs upon souvenir booklets done in the club colors. For this the trophy went to Mrs. J. Ed Brown. The Press club always does the sociable thing when planning the affair of form, and this was no exception. There were about fifty to have this pleasant hour.

JOHN HALBERT FALL, A HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR

Among the seniors who are remembering friends with graduation invitations is John Halbert Fall. In this there is a sentiment with this young graduate, who sends cards to those who were thoughtful of his late father, one of the most popular men Waco has ever known. The class with which John Halbert graduates is:

Sigmund Archibald, Boyd D. Alexander, Roland Breuer, Tom T. Colbert, Frank Greer, Clarence M. Hubby, Jr., Charlie E. Miller, Edward Y. Boynton, Charles H. Brooks, Jr., Thomas E. Caulfield, Alfred A. Connor, Charles D. Daniel, Jr., Clarence T. de Cordova, John H. Edwards, Gus Fred, John Halbert Fall, F. Bennett Hubbard, W. Wayman Hampton, Earle W. Hawkins, Chittus Jones, Drexel D. ANNOUNCEMENT LUNCHEON CARRIES CONGRATULATION

Only a very few were permitted the pleasure of participating in the luncheon which announced the coming marriage of Miss Hazel Kendrick of Providence Heights, to T. Genheimer. This was done in an elaborate service of eight courses amid much by way of beauty in appointment. Conspicuous was the hand-painted china, the work of the bride-to-be. The table arrangement patronized pink color and the Dorothy Perkins rose in its natural foliage for the flower. The center lace piece was underlaid with pink and set with a basket of refreshing and graceful green. Into this was thrust the rose sprigs. The same effect in miniature was found at each plate except that the rose lay at the side of the mat and held a lady finger, over which was slipped a ring. The groom's plate had the bride's engagement gift, the plain gold finger band, while the bride's

The remark of Mrs. A. S. Haber, in expressing her preference for the daily woman's budget was to the effect that she enjoyed reading about all that has transpired before she hears everybody discussing it.
With the first of June, Mrs. A. L. Skinner and Mrs. Conolly Prendergast become summer maîtres of the West Columbus street cottage formerly owned by Mrs. J. S. Hill. Mrs. A. C. Prendergast is expected to join them later in the season.
Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Meadows will summer in the Holloway Smith cottage on North Thirteenth. They take possession with early June.
Mr. and Mrs. Lansing comes from Mart to spend the summer in Waco. They will be domiciled in the A. B. Warner home on North Thirteenth.
Cards have been received in invitation to the marriage of Miss Argle Cooloe of the South Side to Thomas Jefferson Nothern of Austin. This will give another June bride.
The High School Alumni is preparing for a large reception in honor of this year's graduates. The occasion will also serve as a reunion for all the alumni, which now reaches whom intended without anything else—for the card basket. It is courteous to place a two-cent stamp and seal if sent through the mail.

It is now in order to remind that, when the arrangements are made to close the summer home, a care should be taken for the household pet. They are many and these persons who assume to be humane will leave the cat to starve or die of thirst, or perhaps the dog is given to be kicked and cuffed around a negro hotel.
It is now in order for the women to do their part in showing welcome to the ad men. In this each one should do something towards decorating her automobile as it passes down to meet the train. Some are already planning, some of the handsome automobile owners. Each woman can do something with flags, bunting, pennants, artificial garlands—anything to say "Welcome you, and we show it." These 500 cars through the city in procession, all gay with decoration, can not help but be impressive. The ad men are going to every part of the country to tell about Waco and the city's charms. Therefore, Waco's women should do a part.
Rumor has it that a wedding of interest is to occur in Houston in the next few days.
Miss Hallie Jameson has been giving a series of her travel observations through California to her classes. These have found the children greatly interested.
It is all out. The grown-ups are stealing rides on the chutes out at Cameron park.
Mrs. Paul Montgomery is this week's guest of Mrs. J. W. Downs. Mrs. Downs will have invited guests for one afternoon in special pleasure for Mrs. Montgomery.
Mrs. F. L. Grone is within the past few days mistress in her own home, the attractive McLarty cottage on North Fifteenth.
Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jackson, recent comers to the city, have taken the Dilworth residence on North Thirteenth.
It is all a mistake. The News woman editor has been sadly out of order in calling the tiny pink tea rose so much in favor of Tom Thumb. It is a Dorothy Perkins. And now

"I'll insure when I'm able," is a full confession that your family is not able to do without insurance.

Just another week before the girls will be coming home from the year's absence at boarding school. This means a new phase to society. ROMANISM.

Would Establish Foundation to Sup-

Nuns and Priests.

By The Associated Press.
Bristol, Tenn., May 22.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church South, in session here today received a report from its committee on Romanism urging the church to inaugurate a movement among the evangelical churches of Christ in the United States and Canada to throw down the gauntlet to the Roman Catholic church in America to undertake a comprehensive plan of evangelizing the Romanists, and to establish a foundation for the support of converts from their priests, monks and nuns until they are fully instructed and enabled to learn gainful occupations. Judge Allen G. Hall of Nashville, submitted a minority report from the Romanism committee against any such campaign and declaring that it would precipitate the church in political entanglements.

WEBB PROMOTED BY KATY ROAD

TEXAS EXECUTIVE END.

Has Been in Waco as Texas Central

GOES TO ATTEND RAIL RATE HEARING

WACO FREIGHT BUREAU MAN-AGER OFF TO KANSAS CITY TO FIGHT FOR SHIPPERS.

By The Associated Press.
J. C. Dillard, traffic manager of the Waco freight bureau, left yesterday for Kansas City to attend the interstate commerce commission hearings in the interest of Waco shippers. The hearing will begin at Kansas City Friday and will end May 31 at Chicago.

The hearing will be attended by traffic representatives and delegations of interested shippers from several of the larger cities of the state, and probably by representatives of the Texas railroad commission, and by similar representatives of similar interests from all states west of the Mississippi river.

Waco shippers, as well as others throughout the state, are aroused over the wholesale increases in freight rates contemplated in Western Classification No. 51 which has been suspended by order of the Interstate Commerce Commission pending inquiry into the reasonableness of the advance proposed. Jobbers and manufacturers have a particular grievance aside from the increases proposed in rates to Texas, which is in reference to a proposition injected into the suspension proceedings by various state railway commissions of southwestern states, providing that a new ruling shall be incorporated in the Western Classification which will permit the "mixture" of all classes and kinds of less than carload freight into car lots and shipping same at carload rates into Texas, which is admittedly prejudicial to the interests of Texas jobbers and manufacturers, and would have the further effect of building up large distributing centers in other states, such as St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, etc., without any appreciable good reverting to the Texas consumer.

Several meetings of Waco shippers, jobbers and manufacturers have recently been held in the offices of the freight bureau, which resulted in the selection of Mr. Dillard to look after Waco interests at the hearings.

CUBAN SITUATION SAME.

By The Associated Press.
Havana, May 22.—In consequence of the vague and conflicting character of reports from Oriente province, the main focus of revolutionary activity, it is almost impossible to form more than mere conjectures regarding the strength of the movement. Estimates from Oriente relative to the strength of the insurgents vary from 1000 to 5000. One district alone, that of Guantanamo, is credited with 2000 by some. The first figure probably is nearest correct. The secretary of the interior, Senor Bru, said tonight the government was greatly encouraged by the news from Oriente. From the reports received from prominent plantation owners and officers of the rural guard, he felt assured the number of insurgents in the province did not exceed 400.

BATTLEFIELD OF POLITICS NOW IN JERSEY

STRUGGLE FOR NATIONAL DELE-GATES TO BALTIMORE AND CHICAGO SHIFTS EAST.

Three Republican Candidates Are to Stump State—Wilson Facing a Big Fight.

By The Associated Press.
Newark, May 22.—The struggle for national convention delegates shifted today to New Jersey. The New Jersey primaries are next Tuesday, and both republicans and democrats plan to carry the fight up to the very hour of opening the polls. Senator La Follette opened his campaign tonight with speeches in Jersey City and West Hoboken. President Taft and Col. Roosevelt will enter the state tomorrow, starting tours that will touch nearly every important city and town in the state.

"Uninstructed" Candidate.

The democratic situation is unusual. Although Gov. Wilson is the only candidate for the presidential nomination named on the democratic ballots, his opponents inside the state have organized against him and named a complete list of delegates, who will appear in Baltimore as "uninstructed." The anti-Wilson leaders have not announced what candidates they will support in case they go to Baltimore with any delegates. Gov. Wilson has made practically no speaking campaign.

Has Twenty-eight Votes.

New Jersey will send twenty-eight delegates to the convention. The primary situation here is like that in Ohio, to the extent that the election may divide the delegates chosen to represent the several congressional districts among the various candidates, but the New Jersey law provides that delegates at large must abide by the primary vote of the whole state and not by a state convention.

Taft, Roosevelt, La Follette and Wilson all have complete lists of district delegates and delegates at large on the primary ballots.

INSURGENT MAIL CLERKS AGGRESSIVE

ATTACK ADMINISTRATION AS
SUBSERVIENT TO POSTOFF-ICE DEPARTMENT.

By The Associated Press.
New Orleans, May 22.—Insurgents came to the front in today's lively session of the annual convention of the National Railway Mail Clerks' association being held here, when an attack was made upon the administration of President Schardt. The object of the insurgents was to secure the privilege of the floor for Urbana Walker, editor of the Harpoon, who has been fighting the so-called gag rule. The insurgents lost on the vote, but held a caucus and agreed not to let the matter drop.

The principal contention of the insurgents is that the Schardt administration is subservient to the will and dictates of the postmaster general; that it had supinely allowed the department to interpret laws designed to aid the railway mail clerks, in a manner to render them ineffective and causing them to lose protective features.

U. S. Mail Loser.
The insurgents also contend that the government does not get from the railroads what it pays for. The report of the year of Secretary Wood, read today, shows the organization has lost 58 members, with a consequent decrease in income of about $7000.

EUGENIE AT 86 AN EMPRESS IN EXILE

Wonderful Woman Keeps Up Presence of Court Etiquette At English Home.

Special to The Morning News.

London, May 22.—The aged Empress Eugenie attained her eighty-sixth birthday during the week and received telegrams and letters from every member of the British royal family, and a movement from her god-daughter, the Queen of Spain. This wonderful woman has now spent exactly forty-two years of her life in exile, but still likes to retain in her home the royal etiquettes she enjoyed at the height of her fame and beauty as the wife of Napoleon III.

For instance, at her English home, Chiselhurst, for week-end guests are all expected to bow low when the empress enters the drawing room before dinner. In spite of her great age, the empress can still make a stately courtesy, and this she does, taking in all the guests with the one bow and afterwards preceding alone before her guests into the dining room.

In the little hotel where the empress frequently stays, in Paris, she is treated by the manager and servants just as if she still were empress. These little attentions please the old lady immensely. These little weaknesses of the empress Eugenie appeal to her friends, but the same cannot be said of the Duke of Orleans, who has just sold Wood Norton to Sir Charles Swinfin Eady.

The duke has announced that his wife's health does not permit her to remain in England, but club men in London tell a very different story. They say the duke was so unpopular here he could never get guests to stay at Wood Norton, where he kept up a ridiculously regal state, even to making the servants walk backward from his presence. Englishmen never forgave the duke for his ingratitude to this country which he displayed by grossly affronting Queen Victoria at the time of the Boer war.

At a meeting of the Texas Sportsman association held in the parlors of the State House Wednesday night, Temple was selected as the next meeting place of the association. Tucker, Brenham, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Jack Ray presided in the absence of President R. J. Jackson of Mexico, who was unable to attend the meeting.

DE SAGANS TO PAY VISIT TO U. S. SOON

Anna Gould and Husband in London to See Tyler Morse Off for Home.

Special to The Morning News.
London, May 22.—The steamship Mauretania carried a considerable number of well known Americans on her last voyage to New York. One of the most important passengers is Alfred W. Smithers, chairman of the board of Grand Trunk railway. He is going to Canada to choose a successor to Charles A. Hays, who was a Titanic victim. Mr. Smithers said to the Hearst news service correspondent in Euston Station before the departure of the steamer train that his choice later would be ratified by the full board.

Sir Donald Mann, a big Canadian railroad magnate, who has been mentioned as the possible successor of Mr. Hays, was also aboard the Mauretania by a strange coincidence. When asked if he was going to be Mr. Hays' successor, Sir Donald merely said:

"I decline to answer questions." Tyler Morse of New York was seen off by Anna Gould and her husband, the Prince de Sagan. The de Sagens told New York correspondents they were in London only for a few days' visit.

"We are going to the United States soon to make a visit," said Prince de Sagan. Lord Montague of Beaulieu, a motoring enthusiast, who is traveling with Geoffrey Marks, said to the New York American correspondent:

"We are going over in connection with the National Mutual Life association to study the methods of the big American life offices, especially regarding agency development and finance. We are also going with a view of seeing whether it would not be possible to form some sort of a financial league among the British offices."

"Incidentally I am going to study the progress of automobilism in the United States and Canada, as well as kindred subjects, such as aviation. We shall be away two months, visiting New York, Washington, St. Louis, Chicago and Montreal factories. As to the respective merits of British and American cars, I shall be better able to say when I return. I also want to study the good roads movement there. I believe there are fine roads in many parts of the United States."

"I am also going to study into Mr. Marks' hydroelectric scheme at Keokuk, on the Mississippi, where, it is proposed to introduce the latest and most up to date scheme for the development of electric energy by water for transmission of cable for long distances."

The present radius is some 300 miles. I expect British financiers will become interested in this big scheme."

FIGHTS ROADS AND JUDGE FOR DAUGHTER

MEMORY OF LITTLE GIRL LED BOULD TO ATTACKS ON ARCHBOLD, HE SAYS.

By The Associated Press.
Washington, May 22.—With trembling voice, William P. Boland of Scranton, Pa., leading accuser of Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court, told the house judiciary committee today that the memory of his little girl had led him to fight the railroads and Judge Archbald.

About 1904, he said, his family was blessed with a little girl and she was named Mary. The Marion Coal Company, of which he is president, derived its name from the girl who is now dead. Williams told of what he designated as a conspiracy of railroads to get hold of his coal property and of the using of Judge Archbald for that purpose. "I did not like to see the word 'failure' written over that name," testified Boland. "I could have made money in other business, but I have lost money to save it."

"FORT WORTH DAY" CLOSES WITH BANQUET

AD MEN RETURN TO DALLAS
AFTER DAY SPENT IN CITY TO THE WEST.

By The Associated Press.
Fort Worth, Tex., May 22.—With a dinner to the visiting advertising men, representing the associated advertising clubs of America, "Fort Worth Day" closed tonight. The delegates who spent the day in Ft. Worth returned near midnight to Dallas, where the annual session is being held.

At ten o'clock this morning the visitors were entertained with a dinner of welcome in a mass meeting. An automobile parade immediately after the mass meeting ended at the park where the ad men enjoyed a "sky piece hand-out" from a "chuck" wagon, and saw "roving" and riding features of frontier day. On the return many of the visitors took a trip to "Packing town."

An informal dinner was given at the coliseum at 5:30 p. m. Among the after-dinner speakers were Jas. Schermerhorn of Detroit, Charles Frederick Higham, of London, and Clarence Cusley, editor of the Fort Worth Record.

MORE GRADUATED THIS YEAR THAN ANY OTHER

Waco Public Schools to Turn Out Record Crowd This Summer, High to Open Soon.

The commencement exercises of the Waco public schools will be held at the auditorium on the evening of May 30. It was at first announced that an effort would be made to secure the coliseum at the Cotton Palace for the holding of the exercises. It was finally decided that the auditorium would be more suitable, especially on account of its central location.

It is understood that the formal opening of the new high school building will take place within the next week or two. The exercises attending the opening and dedication of the magnificent new edifice will be elaborate. The date of the opening will be announced later.

The graduating exercises to be held at the auditorium promise to be an event of much interest. According to Principal E. T. Genheimer, of the high school, there are seventy-four graduates in this year's class, the largest number in the history of the local schools.

REAL ESTATE DEAL MADE.

A realty deal of considerable importance was made recently, when the R. J. Gribble home property, 927 Austin avenue, was sold to A. R. Roberts, of the Ambrosia Life Insurance Company. The deal was made through the T. J. Prim agency. The consideration was given as $15,000, the lot being 49x165 feet.

It is understood that the new owner will soon begin building modern business buildings upon the lots, which heretofore have been used for a residence. This is considered a very desirable business location, as it is known that the business district is gradually but surely moving west on Austin avenue.

Another real estate deal of no little consequence came to light Wednesday morning, when it became known that E. Rottan sold to Walter Phelan, through Oliver & Oliver realty dealers, 50x150 feet on the south side of Austin avenue for a consideration of $40,000. A two-story house was recently erected on the lots, and is included in the sale.

WHO'S SEEN THE SKIPPER'S GOAT?

HOUSTON SEEMS TO HAVE LOCKED ANIMAL UP AND THROWN KEY INTO THE BUSHES.

In Nice Little Funeral Session Buffaloes Beat Firstwhile Leaders by Score of 5 to 2.

Lost—One animal; answers to the name of Billy; rather odiferous; has horns with which he is ambidexterous; fond of red-flannel shirts, cans and pop bottles for steady diet. When last seen was being chased rapidly up the Brazos by a large, fierce, hungry, bulky of a Mud Cat. Name your own reward if you can scare him back to the ball lot by 4:30 this afternoon.

Yes, Nell, dear; it's a sad, sad tale. The particular animal referred to was once king of the lot. He was some butter, believe me. When he lowered his whiskers, elevated his wig-wag and started on the war-path it took a Chinese wai to stop him. He was so strong that he gave a Chinese wai a pretty good scare. But, alas! Gone is all his glory; shorn of all but his odiferous quality, he is evidently in full flight before a saw-toothed denizen of the muddy dew of Buffalo Bayou.

Where's the Goat? In other words, Houston seems to have Waco's goat.

And having got said animal, they have locked him up in some dark dungeon and chucked the key into the bushes. Anyway, in the second game of the series yesterday the Buffaloes gave a correct imitation of a ball club, while the Waco boys were doing a parody on the Bingley Badgers. They called 'em the Badgers, according to Charley Van Loan, because they backed into the bottom slot in the percentage column and refused to be pulled out.

It wasn't a bad game—if one happened to be from Houston. But it made the local fans about as enthusiastic as would a thrilling course on the relation of untemperament to untimely Umpire Van Sickle did his very little best to enliven the local team and the fans, but there was nothing stirring. Once or twice Hardy's men showed signs of coming to life, but they quickly subsided into their lethargic comatose—yes, that's an awful thing to say about 'em, but it goes—and Houston romped home with the bacon, 5 to 2.

Got Away Quick. Houston didn't lose any time in chasing the Skipper's goat. Young Knapp advanced to the plate in a businesslike manner and promptly batted a pippa square over second base. Then Pat Newman sent him around for the count with a mighty smash to the center field fence for three bases.

That run didn't hurt much. But the two in the second inning were very, very disappointing. Almost provocation for peevish a kind old gentleman who has just had a nice long cool mint julep and is telling the tale of how he lost his arm.

The Marrowing Details. In this second inning Wohlleben meadowed Landreth's grounder, and when Dodd bunted Carson couldn't pick the ball up to all hands were safe. Allen bunted nicely, sacrificing the two runners up a peg. Then Knapp dropped a Texas leaguer back of second. There was a wide difference of opinion on what Stewart did with it. There he went, unfeeling sounder, who contend he dropped it pure and simple; others, who swear by him, contend that he failed to get his hands on it good. Anyhow, it didn't stick in his glove—and two runs were across. Britton and Davis singled in succession, but when Knapp tried to score on the latter hit, Crichtow cut him off at the plate. At any rate Van Sickle said he did it, probably a good thing he said it that way, for there's no telling how many of those hard-hitting guys might have made.

Lohman to Club House. At this stage, it being apparent that the team wasn't going to play good ball behind Lohman, he was yanked and Jost sent in to try and stop the slaughter. Newman opened off him with a single, stole second and scored on Landreth's slashing hit.

The locals scratched along, stalling off runs in every inning until the seventh, when the hitting twins, Britto and Davis, singled. The latter finally scored on Landreth's second pinch hit.

In the meantime, safely banked behind his breastworks of four runs, Edmondson was mowing the locals as he pleased. They didn't even threaten until the seventh, when Aiken singled and advanced to third on Rennard's drive to right. Wohlleben then smashed out a beauty, scoring Aiken. In the eighth a bad throw allowed Carson to score from first, where he was roosting by virtue of a nice single.

After this little flurry, which fizzled early, everybody in the grandstand grinned and lied that they were getting whipped so often that they were beginning to like it.

WIND KEPT DOWN SECOND-DAY SCORE

CLOSE RUN IN SPECIAL EVENT ENDS IN THE BETWEEN NICK ARIE AND ALLEN.

Local Man Leads in High Average for Two Days—Feature Program for Today.

There was a general lowering of averages in all classes yesterday at the second day of the state shoot at Curley's park. Tue wind came across the traps in gusts, and it was generally agreed that the scores were extraordinarily good considering this handicap.

In addition to the regular run of 150, in which some sixty shooters participated, the special event for the state trophy excited considerable interest. This event ended with J. D. Allen of Houston and Nick Arie of Houston tied 48 out of a possible 50. In the shooting off Allen shot the string straight while Arie dropped five.

Ed Forsgard of Waco, is high man for the two days, having a mark of 281 out of a possible 300. Several special events will be shot off today, including the double championship. A feature will be the Forsgard black powder handicap. The events in order are: Leviski handicap, 25 targets; Naman & Goldsmith handicap, 25 targets; Itasca gun handicap, 25 targets; Forsgard black powder handicap, 25 targets.

Sanger Brothers have added a cup to the Ray handicap event for the member of the local club who finishes with highest score. All of the events carry handsome cups or other prizes as extra inducement to good shooting and the day will be a feature one throughout.

CHILD WILL GIVE MUSICAL RECITAL

WILL APPEAR FRIDAY MORNING IN RESPONSE TO NUMEROUS REQUESTS.

In response to repeated requests little Tommie Grissom, the seven-year-old musical prodigy who was discovered two years ago by Prof. W. B. Schimmelpennig of Baylor University, and who is being trained by him, will give a recital at Carroll Chapel at 9 o'clock Friday morning at the regular chapel hour. There will be no charge for admission.

Some weeks ago she played in Carroll Chapel and so numerous have been the requests that she appear again that Prof. Schimmelpennig has arranged for her to occupy the regular chapel hour tomorrow.

The little girl will be recalled as the one who captured the state meeting of the United Commercial Travelers here in 1910. The traveling men were so pleased that they gave her a diamond-studded locket and started a purse for her musical education.

Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor, and Dr. A. J. Barton left yesterday afternoon for Dallas to attend the annual commencement of Baylor Medical College tonight. Dr. Barton will deliver the commencement address and Dr. Brooks will award the diplomas.

Dr. R. J. Willingham of Richmond, Va., secretary of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention, spent yesterday in the city en route home from the convention at Oklahoma City. He spent the day with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Downer, and addressed the Baylor students in chapel yesterday morning.

FOR UNITED METHODISM.
By The Associated Press.
Baltimore, May 22.—By a practically unanimous vote the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church today placed itself on record as opposing the continuation of the negotiations for the union of the three branches of Methodism. It was stipulated, however, that the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South should come to an agreement before the Methodist Protestant church would merge itself with the parent church.

COTTON MARKET IS COMPARATIVELY QUIET

RUMORS BULLISH CROP REPORT WILL BE ISSUED BY GINNERS HAS EFFECT.

New York, May 22.—The cotton market was comparatively quiet today and the close steady at a net loss of 1 to 3 points. The opening was barely steady at a decline of 1 to 6 points, and the active months sold 5 to 7 points not lower during the first few minutes, owing to a generally favorable forecast, but offerings were not heavy and prices soon steadied up on covering of shorts and a little trade buying. Rumors that a bullish crop report would be issued by the National Ginnery association tomorrow undoubtedly contributed to the advance, while another factor was probably the reiterated report of a better trade demand. At any rate, the market worked gradually higher, until prices showed a net gain of about 5 to 6 points on the active positions. An official announcement that the government would issue a condition report at noon June 1 naturally turned attention to the probable showing of the June bureau, and expectations of a condition position stage far under the ten-year average doubt accounted for much of the covering. With the weather now considered very favorable and with private reports indicating considerable improvement in crop conditions, however, there was renewed selling on the advance and the market in the late trading eased off to about the low point of the morning. Last prices were 3 or 4 points up from the lowest on a final spot of covering.

Receipts 5738, against 4609 last week and 6762 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 18, against 1139 last year; at New Orleans 1504, against 3850 last year, and at Houston 618, against 650 last year.

WHEAT IS SHOVED UP IN A HURRY

SUGGESTION OF DROUTH IN THE SOUTHWEST MAKE MARKET TAKE A CLIMB.

Chicago, May 22.—Alarm regarding suggestions of drouth in the southwest and west ran up the price of wheat today in a hurry. Sudden hot weather here made dealers ready to credit rumors of disaster from high winds and dust storms. The result was an advance of 2 1/2@3c. The other leading staples also swept upward—corn 1/4@1/2c, oats 1@1 1/4c, and provisions 5@4 1/2c.

Wheat closed strong, practically at the top level of the season. Reports of interfering heat could not be confirmed, but the perspiring crowd in the pit seemed to think that sufficient reason had otherwise been shown for a lively all around advance. One cause was a statement that plowing up of poor wheat fields was in progress clear across the state of Missouri. Besides, the trade had unfavorable advices from Nebraska and reports of no rain in western Kansas since May 10. Oklahoma sent word that the condition in that state and estimated acreage pointed to a yield of 17,000,000 bushels, whereas dealers had been looking for 25,000,000. Attempts to reinstate holdings of wheat that had been thrown overboard in semi-panic less than a week ago made clear the fact that offerings were decidedly scarce. A big, broad market soon developed and the buying was especially active as the day drew to a finish. Excellent cash demand, better four sides and the firmness of cables all helped to tighten shorts and to add to the courage of the bulls.

Influenced by wheat and by liberal shipping sales, corn displayed a degree of strength fir which but few dealers were prepared. Receipts were small, and with the planting season far too late, there were predictions of more bad weather east of the Missouri river. Cash grades were firm.

General buying led to much higher prices for oats. Shorts took hold eagerly.

High prices for beef and mutton cut a figure today in raising quotations for other packing house products. The advance in grain was likewise charged with part of the responsibility. Tonight the blackboards had pork dealer by 2 1/2@4 1/2c, with lard and bacon up 5@15c.

The close follows:

NEW YORK DRY GOODS.

New York, May 22.—The cotton goods markets are quiet and barely steady. Jobbers report a moderate trade, with an increased demand for wash and white goods. Worsted novelty yarns are in good demand. The fall carpet trade is good.

THREAT TO THE SOUTH.

That big plantations are a menace to the south, the ideal being a great democracy of thrifty, home-owning small farmers, and that taxes should be reduced on small land holdings, and increased on large holdings and on inheritances, was the argument presented in an address before the Southern Commercial congress at Nashville, Tenn., by Clarence Poe.

In the first part of his speech Mr. Poe dealt with the increase of agricultural incomes in the south and declared that they could be doubled by the adequate use of machinery and greater horse power.

"Statistics show," he said, "that farm workers in three typical South Central states average less than one horse and cultivate only sixteen acres per capita, earning $189 per year, whereas the farm workers in three typical North Central states average three and four horses per capita and cultivate sixty-three acres of land apiece, earning $663 a year."

POLITICS JARS THINGS ON STOCK EXCHANGE

WILL MAKE FOR CONSERVATISM AND CAUTION FOR THE NEXT FOUR WEEKS, BELIEVED.

New York, May 22.—Activity in the political world, in spite of predictions to the contrary, appears to have ruffled the waters of the stock exchange, and is likely, so competent observers believe, to make for conservatism and caution during the next few weeks. In the afternoon the market became dull and narrow, with some recovery from the lowest level, but the business of that period was of the usual professional character and failed to make any marked impression other than that brought about by covering of short contracts.

Conditions in the steel and iron trade show further improvement, according to trade authorities. Many of the larger manufacturers are working at 95 per cent capacity and orders now booked are expected to supply the basis of operations well into the fall months. Some plants are running behind in orders for steel plates, and it is regarded as significant that price advances are meeting with less opposition. A rise of $2 per ton in steel tubes was announced today. Some leading railroads, including the Harriman system, have placed various orders for rails, with a sprinkling of contracts for new equipment. Movement of iron ore on the great lakes promises to be unusually large this month.

The bond market was irregular, with weakness in Rock Island collateral 4s. Total sales, par value $2,082,000. Government bonds were unchanged on call.

VIENNA CELEBRATES "DAY OF FLOWERS"

Many Thousand Crowns Are Added to the Charity Fund for Children.

Vienna, May 22.—Three hundred thousand crowns were made in a single day for the sick children of the city forming an excellent record of the city, in which Viennese women devote their efforts to the cause of the suffering. A special article contributed to the Neues Wiener Journal describes the scenes that gave to the city an indefinable charm, for the sale of daffodils was the means selected for the purpose of earning this vast sum of money. From morning to night the streets of one of the finest cities in the world glowed with bulbs of sunshine, and it was not until night had fallen that the empty baskets and other receptacles were handed in to the central organization, along with 8000 collection boxes.

The first blossom of all was accepted by the emperor from a court official, who was approached by Princess Crov. The Archduchess Josepha, president of the Day of Flowers, started out at about 10 o'clock a. m., made the round of the flower-sellers and bought from every one of them. Three hundred crowns were sent to the fund by the Archduchess Leopold Salvator and Baron Louis Rothschild distributed 100 crowns. Many different organizations and all the shops of the city helped or sent in their contributions, adding considerably to the results of the sales.

Night, according to the writer in the Journal, had scarcely passed away when hundreds of charming young girls bombarded the city with daffodils. In every street, at every corner, on every available vantage ground they had taken up their places with baskets laden with the golden cups. Workmen on their way to their day's toil, drivers, girls and men of all classes had all to pay toll by buying daffodils. Right gaily the war went on; nobody possibly could escape. As the hours went past in each district people wore the emblem of good feeling and charity in their buttonholes or carried bunches of them in their hands. Later, the tramway stopping places were besieged; ladies with baskets of flowers went into the factories, shops and places of business.

Men, too, set at work to assist. Strong arms bore big baskets in triumph. At 8 o'clock clerks made their appearance, and officials followed them were the commencement of the usual traffic of a spring morning in a great city. Ladies belonging to the aristocratic families of Austria gave their services, and the scene was turned into a bazaar, for just as in New York or London no man can pass through a charity bazaar without emptying his pockets, so on that day no Viennese might show himself and keep a florin in his pocketbook.

One man was found reduced to offering his watch in exchange for flowers. No denials were taken; money had to be poured out. Princess Alfred and Princess Montenuovo had another, and so on—in every district, at every turning, flower sellers were to be encountered.

By evening 2,750,000 flowers had been disposed of, and there was not a soul in Vienna who would have disgraced himself by appearing without a narcissus on the day of the Children's Flower festival. At 8:30 o'clock the empty baskets were given up and the collection of money commenced. It was first of all amassed in sacks and then carried to the bank. By midnight twenty sacks more than last year's offering had been sent in.

SPAIN IS FACING MINISTERIAL CRISIS

Madrid, May 22.—Persistent reports are current on an approaching ministerial crisis in Spain, due to an alleged discussion between Premier Jose Canalejas and the other members of the cabinet. These discussions are attributed to intrigues of the conservatives headed by Antonio Maura, who seeks to return to power.

The reports have caused a meeting of republicans and socialists to be called at Barcelona, where Roux, the radical leader declared that the return of ex-Premier Maura would be the signal for an uprising of the radical masses of Barcelona.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 22.—Umpire Brady was discharged at a meeting of the Texas League managers here this morning and Billy Ditch, baseball coach at the State University and ex-Pitcher Torrey was named to replace him. Much criticism of all the umpires, but Newhouse was indulged in but none was released but Brady. His health was one cause of the latter's release. He is sick here at present.

HIG CROPS TAKE TOLL FROM LAND

Prosperous Farmer Sees That Fertility Is Returned to the Soil.

Special to The Morning News.

We hear a lot of talk about the waning fertility of our farms; that the farmers are not farmers, but miners, and that we are robbing posterity. On the other hand, we are advised to breed up our grains as we do our live stock with a view of getting larger and better yields. It seems to me that it is rather difficult to reconcile ourselves to such teachings. As I understand it, the larger crops we raise, the more plant food we take out of the soil, and therefore the more "mining" we become guilty of. How can we maintain the amount of plant food now in our soils and still grow larger crops with each succeeding year?

At first thought this may seem a little puzzling. It is true that a 90-bushel corn crop removes more plant food from a soil than a 50-bushel crop. It takes a definite amount of the elements of fertility to produce one bushel of corn and twice that amount to produce two.

Plants require certain definite chemical elements for their growth and development—ten in all. For our purpose we may call these elements plant foods. The plant derives some of these from the soil and some from the air. If nine of these elements were present in great abundance and the tenth were absent it would be impossible for any of our ordinary farm plants to reach maturity. If a soil were made that contained all the plant food elements except iron, for example, it would be impossible for a seed planted in such a soil to make any growth beyond germinating. This, however, does not signify that iron is a match importance agriculturally; it is not. The reason why the farmer never needs to pay any attention to the amount of iron his soil contains is because all soils contain enough iron for crop pro-

NEED 2000 AIRSHIPS FOR FRENCH ARMY

NATION IS PLANNING TO LEAD WORLD WITH ITS CORPS OF AERIAL DEFENSE.

Special to The Morning News.

Paris, May 22.—The patriotic enthusiasm over the aerial army continues unabated, and much comment has been aroused by an article just published by Lieut. Col. Gombault of the French Army on the subject of the present position of the aerial defense of this country. In spite of the public enthusiasm, says the colonel, the sums allotted by the budgets during the last two years for this purpose were not only notoriously deficient, but have been badly applied, while the credits provided for by this year's estimates are not enough, in spite of the war minister's declaration, to keep military aviation on proper footing, and the subscriptions now pouring in from the public will eventually prove to have been absolutely ineffectual.

Popular opinion that France easily leads the world in this branch of national defense, is somewhat dampened by Col. Gombault, who points out that while this country possesses twenty-one dirigibles, of which fifteen are fitted for serious work, the Germans possess twenty-nine, twenty of which could hover over Paris at twelve hours' notice. He further declares that the present number of our aeroplanes is hardly enough to insure protection of mobilization, and that an enormous effort remains to be made before aviation is completely organized. Two thousand aeroplanes are necessary, he said, to defend France for the next war, and he ends the optimistic note that not only funds are current on an approaching ministerial crisis in Spain, due to an alleged discussion between Premier Jose Canalejas and the other members of the cabinet. These discussions are attributed to intrigues of the conservatives headed by Antonio Maura, who seeks to return to power.

GOTCH HAS SIX HOLDS.

World's Champion Wrestler Does Not Know Names of Others.

Although there are many winning holds in wrestling, Frank Gotch, world's heavyweight champion, knows the names of only six of them. The champion knows how to apply the locks, but does not know the technical terms of one-fifth of the holds which have resulted in the defeat of so many challengers.

Gotch is known to wrestling as the originator of the toe hold, but the big champion says he seldom uses it to throw an opponent. He asserts the hold is more of a foot-lock than a toe hold and he uses it to trick opponents into positions where he can clamp on other deadly holds. Gotch's favorite grip is a half-Nelson and catch hold. He claims he meat Marmout in their last meeting by the use of this grip and by the same means beat Zbyzsk in 1910, at the Chicago Coliseum, in the second fall of their match.

"I don't believe half the professional wrestlers know the technical terms of all the holds," Gotch said. "I think I can name about six of the holds, but there is such a difference of opinion as to the names of the holds that I never have tried to be an authority on the holds employed by myself or other wrestlers."

BACKSLIDING OF SAMPSON IS THEME

REVIVALIST HOLDS UP STRONG MAN OF SCRIPTURE AS AN EVIL EXAMPLE.

Crowds Continue to Increase at the Tabernacle Meetings of Nights.

The attendance increases each evening at the tabernacle on Franklin street, filling the many new seats prepared yesterday and nearly the entire tabernacle. A feature of last night's service was the singing of Evangelist Ham of "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" with a new version answering the question, "Down in Your Licensed Saloon."

The responses to the invitation to come to the front for instruction were numerous, and about twenty names were given for confession and reinstatement at the morning service.

"The Story of a Backslider" was the name given to the life of the strong man, Samson, in a plea to Christians to keep their lives from being stumbling blocks to sinners. The evangelist said in part:

"It is a fearful thing to be epistles of Christ, read of all men. Every message against worldliness preached from the pulpit is denied by the lives of some in the pew."

"Samson made a mistake by being yoked in unholy relationship. 'It all happened while I was living away from God' is the cry. Many a woman is living a miserable life because she married a wretch of a man that she met at the ball room or in low company. When Samson betrayed God he did just what many people are doing today. God has entrusted to you the work of telling the story of His love, and you have failed him. And Christians today go blind, like Samson, so they can not see the harm in worldly amusements. They go blind and can not see that their sinners friends are lost."

SPAIN IS FACING MINISTERIAL CRISIS

Madrid, May 22.—Persistent reports are current on an approaching ministerial crisis in Spain, due to an alleged discussion between Premier Jose Canalejas and the other members of the cabinet. These discussions are attributed to intrigues of the conservatives headed by Antonio Maura, who seeks to return to power.

The reports have caused a meeting of republicans and socialists to be called at Barcelona, where Roux, the radical leader declared that the return of ex-Premier Maura would be the signal for an uprising of the radical masses of Barcelona.

UMPIRE BRADY GOES.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 22.—Umpire Brady was discharged at a meeting of the Texas League managers here this morning and Billy Ditch, baseball coach at the State University and ex-Pitcher Torrey was named to replace him. Much criticism of all the umpires, but Newhouse was indulged in but none was released but Brady. His health was one cause of the latter's release. He is sick here at present.

To be a mother to be some man's inspiration, to live in the heart of the children, to be the center about which cluster life's holiest associations, surely, this is the greatest blessing heaven can bestow. When the sorrows and sacrifices, the loves and joys, dreams, hopes, ambitions, of prerogatives of motherhood are thine; woman, thou hast come to thy kingdom.

Prosperous Farmer Sees That Fertility Is Returned to the Soil.

Special to The Morning News.

We hear a lot of talk about the waning fertility of our farms; that the farmers are not farmers, but miners, and that we are robbing posterity. On the other hand, we are advised to breed up our grains as we do our live stock with a view of getting larger and better yields. It seems to me that it is rather difficult to reconcile ourselves to such teachings. As I understand it, the larger crops we raise, the more plant food we take out of the soil, and therefore the more "mining" we become guilty of. How can we maintain the amount of plant food now in our soils and still grow larger crops with each succeeding year?

At first thought this may seem a little puzzling. It is true that a 90-bushel corn crop removes more plant food from a soil than a 50-bushel crop. It takes a definite amount of the elements of fertility to produce one bushel of corn and twice that amount to produce two.

Plants require certain definite chemical elements for their growth and development—ten in all. For our purpose we may call these elements plant foods. The plant derives some of these from the soil and some from the air. If nine of these elements were present in great abundance and the tenth were absent it would be impossible for any of our ordinary farm plants to reach maturity. If a soil were made that contained all the plant food elements except iron, for example, it would be impossible for a seed planted in such a soil to make any growth beyond germinating. This, however, does not signify that iron is a match importance agriculturally; it is not. The reason why the farmer never needs to pay any attention to the amount of iron his soil contains is because all soils contain enough iron for crop pro-soils, we must keep up the present supply of this element. Fortunately this can be done with comparatively little expense. At present it can be supplied at four cents a pound. This means that all the phosphorus found in 90 bushels of corn—exclusive of that in the stalks—can be purchased for 62 cents. It will be unnecessary even to add phosphorus to most of our soils in the section of country referred to for many years to come, if we will but grow plenty of clover or alfalfa and thus get an abundance of humus incorporated with them. This, of course, presupposes that we keep a good deal of live stock and thus convert a large share of our crops into manure to be returned to the soil. We must not overlook the fact that we have more soils that will not produce over forty and sixty bushels of corn to the acre than soils that will produce ninety bushels in a good year. We need no nitrogen because we have plenty of it in our soils; but many a farm needs organic matter and phosphorus.—J. C. A.

JOIN IN MOVEMENT TO PRESERVE GAME

MANY LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS SENT TO CONVENTION EXPRESSING SYMPATHY.

W. Goodrich Jones of Temple, who was chiefly instrumental in bringing about the convention now in session in Waco for the conservation of wild life, both birds, game and fish, has been overwhelmed with letters and telegrams expressing sympathy with the purposes of the movement, and offering to join the state association, to become enrolled as members, and to work for the achievement of the purposes of the association.

Among those who have sent expressions of sympathy are T. Gilbert Pearson of New York, secretary of the National Association of Audubon societies; Dr. T. S. Palmer, assistant chief of the bureau of biological survey, Washington, and Prof. H. P. Attwater, industrial agent of the Southern Pacific.

One of the strongest letters was signed by one hundred of the leading citizens of Fayette county, all the professions, as well as business men and manufacturers, being represented in the signers of the paper. Among those heading the list are C. W. Amberg, B. F. Hangel, publisher of the LaGrange Journal; Otto Hanger, Fred Hanger, H. W. Spracklen, Dr. F. W. Miller, G. H. Morse, county attorney; Robert E. Morse, justice of the peace; R. Glatt, county clerk. These gentlemen urge that the convention recommend strong bird and game laws and a method for the raising of revenue for the enforcement of those laws.

A great many of these letters and telegrams were addressed to Captain M. B. Davis, the agent in Texas of the National Association of Audubon societies. These societies are co-operating with this convention, and Captain Davis read many of the letters at the day's session, in each case provoking enthusiastic applause. Among the Audubon letters was one from M. C. Charlesworth of Seabrook, Texas. Mr. Charlesworth advocates strong legislation, reducing the bag limit, and shortening of the open season in which game may be shot.

Another letter was from Edwin T. Guice of Terrell, Texas. Mr. Guice is a very earnest advocate of protection, and expressed the belief that if the present movement had been postponed a year or two longer there would be nothing left to protect.

From Henderson came a lengthy, interesting and highly encouraging letter, signed by Mrs. Charles M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson, W. J. and S. W. Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cox, Miss Otha Ashby, Dr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Wood, Mrs. J. S. Hardeman, Mrs. A. C. Vinson, Miss Maggie J. Gates, Mrs. N. B. James and Mrs. Stroud and Watkins. The signers of the Henderson letter pledged themselves to help in the movement for the protection of wild life, having evidently discerned that immediate and radical protection is needed to arrest annihilation.

In his telegram to W. Goodrich Jones, sent today, T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary, says:

"The National association of Audubon Societies, for the protection of wild life, birds and animals, sends greeting to the Texas conservators of wild life now assembled in convention in Waco. Let us all unite to make next year the greatest in the history of animal, bird and game protection."

The meeting of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America is one of the biggest things that was ever captured by Texas. In the parade in Dallas Monday there were as many as fifteen hundred automobiles, and still the hotel lobbies and the streets were full of delegates who did not go to the Dallas News luncheon at the Country club. The gentlemen assembled in Dallas represent the brains of the mercantile world of the United States, and a great deal of the capital. They have come to Texas to talk a little business, see the greatest state in the union, and have a real good time. All Texas will join together as one family to see that they have a good time, and return to their homes with nothing but pleasant recollections of Texas and Texas hospitality. Dallas has on her best bib and tucker, and all her citizens have the glad hand extended in cordial welcome. In a few days these delegates will be in Waco, and Waco is ready to show them one of the best cities on their itinerary, a city that is growing and progressing rapidly. Get ready to be as agreeable as you can when they arrive. Make it your especial duty to be pleasant and agreeable to every man, woman and child who has on a badge, and be so cordial in your reception that they will have only pleasant recollections of Waco. There is nothing in the world like a real cordial, royal, genuine, friendly welcome to impress people with the cities that they visit. It doesn't make any difference how elaborate the entertainment, unless it has this hearty cordiality it will be lacking in that quality that carries with it pleasant recollections. The News feels sure that no citizen of Waco will forget that the delegates to the convention of Associated Advertising Clubs of America are the guests of Waco by invitation, and it is the duty of every citizen to make them feel perfectly at home.

There are twelve lines of beneficial work of the Evangelia Settlement, those of cooking, sewing, housekeeping, manual work, day nursery, kindergarten, library, social clubs, religious meetings, educational lectures, playground work, care of the sick and afflicted, care of the delinquent and dependent children, charity and neighborhood welfare, all of which activities appeal to The News as being worthy the kind consideration and wholesome co-operation of every patriotic citizen, who has at heart the welfare of humanity. Happiness can not be purchased at any price. It is like the jewels in the canopy of heaven. It comes of a higher source. Since the dawn of things, through the twilight of tradition; since the darkness of night was woven around the web of stars that dot the canopy above us; since mankind started human philanthropy; since out of the curved distance of the remote past, fellowship dawned into bright reality, the world has been growing better. It is great to know that the reflex action of helping some good cause consoles those upon whom sorrow's shadows have come. It is better still to have the sheer knowledge that you are helping along in a good work. Do what you can for the Evangelia Settlement cause, and you will be the better for doing it. And great work like this appeals especially to The News. What is loftier in life than to be able to strive for assistance to others less fortunate! What lifts man to higher goals than the beautiful aspiration to lend a helping hand to those who need it! The News wishes to say a few kind words at least to help along the movement, founded in right philosophy, and championed by real philanthropists at heart.

Rev. Richeson, although guilty of a heinous, diabolical crime, met his fate in the electric chair calmly and without fear of death, expressing the hope of salvation. It does not matter how much penitence he may have shown, he can not bring back the life that he swept into eternity because his heart was filled with desire, and he was not able to withstand the lure of laughing eyes and the charm of women's soft, crimson lips. His death will not recall the gleam of the eyes that are now dull and lusterless, nor will his expiation in the electric chair in any help the girl who has gone to that unknown country beyond the stars. One death does not make amends, nor does it atone for the death of another, nor is death as severe a punishment as life deprived of liberty. Punishment by death is a relic of the old testament dispensation, it is a relic of barbarism, and it is on the decline in the civilized nations of the world. It is true that if there ever was a crime that did deserve death, this one did; it was not only a cruel one, but it was a cowardly one. An innocent girl who had placed not only her life but her honor in the keeping of this man, who loved and trusted him, was poisoned in order to get rid of her, so that he might marry another woman, whom he had charmed with his peculiarly fascinating personality. He was a wicked man, and his heart was as black as the uttermost depths of hell, yet wherein is the girl benefited, wherein is society helped, and in what way is humanity bettered by this man's electrocution? "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord," and God alone should have power over life and death. Some of these days we will learn that the criminal can be punished more effectively by letting him live, paying his daily penance by serving the state with his labor, a living example of what will happen to those who do the things that they ought not to do. Murder is a terrible crime, and it deserves quick and harsh punishment. The murder of pretty Avis Linnell was an exceptionally diabolical murder, and calls for quick and summary action, yet we hesitate to say that society and humanity in general is any better because Rev. Richeson was electrocuted, and his lifeless body is now mouldering in the grave. It takes mankind a long time to comprehend that death alone belongs to God, who alone can give life, but the world is slowly turning its face towards this belief, feeling that incarceration behind prison bars is much worse as a punishment than death, which is the ending of all punishment.

There is no work more commendable than that of the Rescue Home, where deserted, friendless girls who have fallen because their hearts were bigger than their heads may find protection and assistance, and be provided with a means whereby they may be able to secure employment, and live in the future clean, virtuous lives. It is not such an awful sin as it is pictured to yield to the call of youth and the beatings of the heart under temptation, but the consequences are so terrible, for the world is heartless, cruel, relentless, pursuing the unfortunates even unto the brink of the grave itself. Waco has a home of this kind that is doing some good work in this line, and every year saves many girls and their babies, who come into the world steeped in sin and shame. How heartless is the world, and how insincere are the Christian professions of many of those who shout in the tabernacle of the Lord, and sing loud praises of His name. Help the good, kind man who is engaged in this noble work, and give him the means whereby he will be enabled to save more of the world's unfortunates. If he does no more than provide homes and sustenance for the little babies of those mothers who loved not wisely but loved too well, he should receive the encouragement of all good people, and he should not want for money with which to carry on the good work.

The old world is moving on at a rapid rate, and we who stand still will soon find himself alone. Some of us who think that we are moving fast find that, run as rapidly as we may, we are left far behind. It is not an accident, however, for the Great Universal Mind knows what He has in view, and is guiding destiny to fulfill that which has been lingering in His heart since the world began.

Should Dark Horse Fairbanks pull down the empty honor of heading the Republican ticket, we suggest as the Democratic campaign slogan, "Beware of the iceberg."

The noisiest political farmer has the tallest weeds in his cornfield and the fewest potatoes in his hills.

There are some people with whom you can never get acquainted, so cold and so secretive are their natures. They have no quality to draw the affection of others to them, and they are unable to feel those sweet thrills of friendship that sweep over the hearts and the souls of others. God pity such people, for they are indeed deserving of sympathy. Friends are the things that make life worth while and the gleam of tender eyes and the clasp of loving hands are more valuable as means of happiness than wealth, power and fame to a normal man. The cold man is apt to go through life without making any serious mistakes, for he is not susceptible to temptations like the warm-hearted sympathetic fellows whose blood courses warm in their veins and whose pulse beats fast. Give us more of those who love us for what we are, and who love us so well that they are blind to our faults. Give us more of those who are willing to clasp you by the hand and look into your eyes, even though your worldly goods have been scattered to the winds. Who does not admire a man who loves a friend, and who is ready and willing to defend him against all the world at any time, against any kind of odds?

Labor is one of the supreme laws of life. Toil is honorable. The progress which the world has made is a glorious testimonial to human handiwork. Those who work know more of genuine happiness than those whose lives seem dedicated to idleness.

Every moment is an opportunity for good or bad, and it is very important how we use the moments as they pass along into the days that make the years that cluster around eternity.

If minds were made up as readily as faces, there would be more wondrous wits, and wisdom would be more generally found where only indecision now sits and wonders what to do.

No man is greater than his desires, nor can any person rise above his thoughts. It is therefore very important that we look well to both our desires and our thoughts.

Fate is a peculiar thing, for fools sometimes rush in and take the things that wise men longed for but did not have the nerve to take.

Some of the energy to be applied to the coming fly swatting campaign might with beneficial results be applied to the extermination of the idiot who yells "fire" at a crowded moving picture shows.

RESIGNATION.

Stephen Shannon, Staff Poet Morning News.

There is a home—a restful home. Off in the "Sweet Somewhere." A home whose dwellers never feel The blighting breath of care; And how I long, yes long to go And join this happy band Who dwell in joy and peace and love. Across the Borderland.

At times my soul impatient grows, And longs to wing its flight To realms of love's eternal day Beyond the shades of night; And then I think, perhaps, that I May be a Beacon Light, And often used, when I least think, To lead some soul aright.

And then I pray, "Lord, let me stay Here in this world of care As long as I can serve Thy cause At home or anywhere"; And then I feel my hungry soul Eagerly grow until My heart-felt song, the whole day long, Is, "Lord, to do Thy will."

TRAIN ARRIVED JUST THREE YEARS LATE

A train which left Bolivar, in South America, for a neighboring town three years ago has just arrived. The distance covered was 120 kilometers, and the reason for the delay was a storm which derailed the train, killed most of the passengers and ripped up such a goodly portion of the railroad line that the company owning it was forced into bankruptcy. About six months ago an American engineer undertook the reconstruction of the road and brought the long-delayed train to the point for which it originally started.—Harper's Weekly.
